I have entered all my family history research on my Tschopp line into a genealogy software called Rootsmagic. This software creates a compressed file in *.zip format as a backup. I file size is about 500k so it should download without much time, even on a dial up connection. You can then download a free trial version of the rootsmagic software from their website at rootsmagic.com I am told by the rootsmagic company that the free version will do everything that the $29 full price version will do but will limit you to adding only 10 additional family members and I don't think you can print with it. But if you want that you just send them the $29. But they told me that you can use the free download to view the tschopp.zip file that I will email you. If you want it just send me an email at john.chubb@maxinter.net and I will forward the data to you. What I hope to get out of sharing this with you all is that you will review it and send me any needed corrections.

 Post subject: looking for a line of Tschopps

I sent you an email, John. I'm looking for the family of Lydia M Tschopp in Basel region of CH in late 1800s.

Thanks for sharing resources, I look forward to hearing from you through email. I'll send my research to you and tschopps.com both when I have more in place.

I am very interested in any information you may have on the Tschopp family. My father was born in Elizabethville, Pennsylvania, as was my grandfather, aunts and uncle. My father, Ernest Tschopp passed away in 1980. My uncle, Melvin Tschopp lived in Lykens. He has also passed away. My Aunt, Vera Tschopp Underkoffler passed away before I was born. My aunt, Margaret (Margie) Tschopp Underkoffler currently lives in Elizabethville. I have a cousin, William (Bill) Tschopp who lives in Lykens.

I would appreciate any information you have on our family. Thank you so very much.

My cousin and myself would like to start a family reunion again with all the Tschopps. We used to have one every year the first Saturday of August. We would like to start it back up again since it was mostly all cousin's that would show up. Please contact me at Liz75@aol.com if you would like more information. Thank you.

Hi, i am Russell T. Tschopp. My father, E. Russell Tschopp was born in Treverton Pa. 😊

I just wanted to say that we all are most likely cousins. When you look at the tree, most of us started with Durs Tschopp, who came to America in 1750. 😊😊😊😊
Any one wish to know more of the details of my end of the family may email me. ➡

I would like to add to this family-- I have a newspaper item from the Schuylkill Herald Oct 3,1901

A Peculiar Accident occurred to A.M. Tschopp a resident of Elizabethville which cost him his life.On Thur of last week he in the company of his son went to the creek near his house to hunt small game. The gun he carried was a muzzle loader.He fired at some birds not taking time to put the gun to his shoulder. The gun was heavily charged and the force drove the butt end into his abdomen .At first it was thought he was not seriously injured.He died however Fri afternoon. Deceased was a brother to John Tschopp of Orwin.Funeral was held on Sun Interment at Elizabethville. Those present from this vicinity were John Tschopp and family,Sarah Tschopp of Orwin, Mrs Charles Heberling , George Tschopp, Mrs Laura Shomper,Mrs Joseph Myers, Mrs Preston Myers, Charles Masterson, George Van Houten and family and Mrs Kate VanHouten Tower City.

Does anyone have a recent email address for John Chubb? I tried the address posted at john.chubb@maxinter.net, but my message did not go through. Thanks for your help. My Chupp Family is from the Lexington/Newberry SC area.
